

Vacancy for Taura Kaitunu Kai - Apprentice Chef or Kaiawhina Manaakitanga - Catering Assistant

The Outward Bound School at Anakiwa is a specialist training provider, which supports people to reach their full potential through challenge in the outdoors. We are looking for a second Taura Kaitunu Kai - Apprentice Chef or Kaiawhina Manaakitanga Catering Assistant to join our catering team at the Outward Bound School.

This is an amazing opportunity for a candidate who can demonstrate a passion and keen interest for a vocation in the hospitality industry, to gain a qualification via a NZ Apprenticeship in Cookery under the tutelage of Marcel Rood.

We will also consider an applicant who may not wish to embark on an apprenticeship, but has a passion for food.

This is a full time position and we are looking for someone who is flexible and can work weekends and nights.

The successful applicant will have a keen interest in food and preferably some cooking experience, together with a good understanding of all dietary requirements. Comprehensive training will be provided.

This role involves packing rations for students to take into the field, cleaning, cooking for students and staff, ordering and monthly stock takes.
